Speaker Kenny Andrews

I accepted Jesus as my personal Lord and Savior in 1984 at N.T.I.D. In 1996, the Lord opened the doors for me to teach a deaf bible study at Calvary Chapel Fontana/Rialto. In 2004 God called me to teach a deaf study at Harvest Christian Fellowship Church in Riverside. I taught at Calvary Chapel High Desert for 3 years thereafter. Currently, I fellowship and teach at Wildwood Calvary Chapel in Yucaipa where I am seeing God doing amazing things in the deaf ministry there. I have been married for 24 years to my beautiful bride Penny and we are blessed with 3 children. Our oldest daughter Alissa and her husband Jason have blessed us with 3 grandsons, Noah and Josiah and Luke Matthew. Our son Matt has also added to our family this past November when he married his beautiful bride Angela. Our youngest daughter Brianna is such a blessing and we know the Lord is doing amazing things in her life as she desires to put Him first in everything. It is my desire to see the deaf come to know the Lord as their personal Lord and savior and for them to grow in maturity in the Lord.
