Cindy Dively

She currently serves as a Co-Pastor with her husband, Emory, at Twin Cities Deaf Assembly of God in St. Paul, Minnesota and is a full-time DHH teacher. She has two adult children (Emory David and Erica) and a "daughter-in-love", Maria. Cindy is blessed to have two grandchildren (Ana and Josiah - six months apart).

Her ministry includes AG National Appointed US Missionary, National Deaf Culture Fellowship Women Ministries President, Founders and Presidents for both Deaf Women Fellowship of Minnesota and Midwest Deaf Women Retreat for more than 20 years. Cindy was a teacher at Deaf International Bible College under the umbrella of North Central University (1988 to 1999). She has traveled and shared the Gospel to 20 different countries. She loves collecting seasonal items and anything chocolate.

This is a women's event where child care is not provided.
